- Comments:
  - Positive Comments
    - “The instructor was very knowledgeable and passionate about what he was teaching. He was also extra friendly!”
    - “Great Presenter!”
    - “Thanks! Lost to think about.”
    - “Ed—So good to see your passion again!! Thank you! Saw Dave Pelzer last Friday evening at Goshen College (A Child Called It); Fascinating presentation! His message—Hard work pays off! Purge until you can’t purge anymore & my favorite: Embrace the Suck! P.S> Lake’s a lucky kid!! Haha”
    - “Thank you very much... this was very helpful—I also see myself in many of these pages (because I come from a background of sexual/physical abuse)...but, thankfully, my past pain doesn’t have to be wasted—but turned around to help others in pain—Isaiah 61:1-4 ‘he came to heal my (our) broken heart”
    - “Wonderful. Very helpful. Thank you!”
    - “Very Good Workshop!”
    - “Thank you for presenting the material in this way. It was a different way of hearing it and I appreciate it.”
    - “Thank you. Very nice presentation.”
    - “Thank you so very much. God Bless”
    - “Awesome!” X2
    - “To Ed—the truth of comments made were very helpful and when working with kids will help to make better choices when rough nights at work with kids. Very good comments on staying in the best lane. Thank you.”
    - “Loved it!”
    - “Learning this 40 years ago would have been a gift to my own children.”
    - “Thanks for doing this!!”
    - “I was glad I came to this workshop. Thank you for giving us the how, what, where, why and who. You took a knitted garment and took it apart by pulling on the thread. Then you showed us how to knit it back together again. Thanks!”
  - Weaknesses
    - “Lots of repeating”
    - “Could have had more discussion “re-writing a healthy history;” I presume this involves re-writing these lies/false beliefs?”
    - “Difficult to hear at times when you talk low away from the mic.”
  - Recommendations
    - “What about a workshop on forgiveness—how to let go—for the offended and the offender?”
  - Regarding Facilities
    - “Clean, attractive, good visibility—just too cold”
    - “It was great to see the American flag in the lecture hall!”
